African IT Center has a solid experience in development and building of custom solutions through our 20 years of existence and experience. Thoroughly analyzing your business needs, industry and product requirements, we deliver tailored cost-competitive, scalable and robust solutions.

Our custom software development services include:

* Web Applications Programming

* C++ Programming

* Java Programming

* Embedded software development

* Database design & consulting

* Application re-engineering and re-factoring

* Creation of distribution packages with application installation

* Packaging and CD cover design

* Manufacturing packaged software